The Appeal for 1884.

The APPEAL, having for forty-three years been recognized as the exponent of Southern thought, Southern politics and Southern industry, and shared the vicissitudes of the Southern people, it is now participating in their prosperity. Its increase in circulation and business has been steady and unbroken. It has many more readers now than ever before in its long history, and it will be the aim of the management to deserve a continuance of this patronage by the publication of a broad, full, complete, enterprising journal, commensurate with the growth of the city, the prosperity of the South, and shall rank with the large and influential papers of other great cities. It has and will have correspondents at all important points contributory to Memphis; and will use, as it is now doing the telegraph freely for its own special reports of all interesting events. The year 1884 promises to be one of the most important in this crowded and eventful century. It will witness a Presidential election of unusual interest, and in this great contest the APPEAL will be where it has always been—the friend and advocate of the Democratic party. The APPEAL for 1884 will present to its readers daily a faithful and full record of current events.

OF THE ## STATE OF MISSISSIPPI.

[PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.]

AN ACT to confer certain powers on the Board of Supervisors of Hinds and Warren counties.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Mississippi, That the boards of supervisors of Hinds and Warren counties are authorized and empowered to purchase scrapers and other necessary implements for working the public roads of the counties and cutting down the hills thereon, to be paid for out of the county treasury.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That only so many of such scrapers and other implements shall be purchased as herein provided, as shall be deemed necessary to properly work said public roads and cut down the hills thereof, and that the same shall be delivered to the several road overseers, who shall in turn deliver them to their successors. The same to be kept and held for the use of the county as herein provided, and it shall be the duty of such overseers to take the receipt of their respective successors for the implements and scrapers so held by them, and delivered to such successors, and shall state such fact in their annual report, and any overseer failing to deliver such implements received by him to his successor or other person authorized to hold the same for the use of the county, shall be deemed and held guilty of a misdemeanor, and may be prosecuted by the board of supervisors thereof, and in addition may be sued for the value of the property so received by him by the board of supervisors in the name of the county.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That the board of supervisors aforesaid shall annually, when they appoint overseers of the roads, designate what particular hills shall be cut down by the respective overseers, and how much they shall be cut down during the year, also what places shall be filled up or raised, and how much. That it shall be the duty of said board of supervisors to regulate the working of said roads as shall result in leveling them as far as practicable within such reasonable time as may be practicable.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That if any road overseer shall fail to perform the work so allotted to him, with the hands subject to his control within the time provided for in the order of the board of supervisors he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and it is hereby made the duty of the judge of the circuit court to give this act in charge to the grand jury of said county; provided, that in any indictment against a road overseer under this act the defendant shall be allowed to show in his defense that the work so allotted to him was more than could reasonably have been done with the hands under his charge, of which the jury shall be the judge on the trial.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage.

Approved, January 29, 1884.

AN ACT to authorize the Board of Supervisors of Polk county to have the transcribing of certain records completed.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Mississippi, That the board of supervisors of Polk county in this State be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to contract for the completion of the transcribing of the records of the second circuit and chancery court district of said county.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the transcribing of said records as aforesaid named, shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, deemed competent by said board, and the amount allowed by said board for transcribing said records shall not exceed (6) six cents per hundred words, and that the whole amount paid by said board for transcribing said records of said Second District shall not exceed the amount of six hundred ($600.00) dollars. Said amount to be paid out of the "general fund" of the county.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That this act take effect from and after its passage.

Approved, January 29, 1884.

AN ACT to change the time of holding the circuit court of Kemper county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Mississippi, That the circuit court of Kemper county shall hereafter be held as follows, to-wit: commencing on the first Monday of February and August of each year, and continue twelve judicial days, if business should require.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That all bonds and recognizances, and processes of any kind, for the appearance of any party or returnable to the terms of said circuit court, as heretofore held, shall be as valid and binding for the terms of said court as provided by this act, as if the said bonds, recognizances and process had been taken or returned to the terms of said court as now provided by this act.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall be in force from and after the first day of April, 1884.

Approved, January 29, 1884.

AN ACT authorizing Board of Supervisors of Marshall county to dispose of property formerly used as jail.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Mississippi, That the Board of Supervisors of Marshall county be and are hereby authorized to make any disposition they believe to be to the interest of Marshall county of the property formerly used as a jail for said county.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved January 29, 1884.

AN ACT to change the time of holding the chancery court in the counties of Marion, Perry and Greene.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Mississippi, That the time of holding the chancery court in Marion, Perry and Greene counties be changed as follows: In the county of Marion, on the fourth Monday in March and September, and continue six days. In the county of Perry, on the first Monday after the fourth Monday in March and September, and continue six days. In the county of Greene, on the second Monday in April and October, and continue six days.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That all process returnable to the terms of court changed by this act, be returnable to the terms herein specified and designated.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That this act take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved January 29, 1884.

AN ACT to authorize the Board of Supervisors of Calhoun county to levy a tax on said county sufficient to pay the outstanding school warrants of the same.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Mississippi, That the board of supervisors of Calhoun county are hereby authorized to levy a tax upon said county sufficient to pay all outstanding school warrants, provided said board of supervisors in their judgment may deem it necessary and demanded in order to pay such warrants.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That said levy, if made, shall be done by said board at the time of levying the taxes of said county in the year 1884.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That said taxes if levied shall be assessed and collected as other school taxes of said county are assessed and collected, and then when collected to be placed by the collector of said taxes in the hands of the proper officer of said county, whose duty it shall then be to pay off and liquidate said school warrants.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That this act be in force and take effect from and after its passage.

Approved January 29, 1884.

A Story About Senator Williams.

Old Cero Gordon Williams is the handsomest man of his years in Kentucky, not excepting General William Preston, formerly Minister to Spain and at the Court of susceptible Isabella. Williams is six feet two inches with grizzled-iron mustache and curled wig, piercing gray eyes, the frame of a giant and a voice of fine, melodious ring. He is as vain as a peacock. While traveling in Southern Russia, when a young man, he alighted at a village where the Emperor Nicholas was hourly expected. Williams was taken for the Emperor. It took the Russians an hour to get over the mistake, but Williams has never entirely recovered. He won his title by gallantry before the walls of Cero Gordo, a Captain in Scott's army, and he has maintained his fame for prowess by many personal encounters, in all of which he handled himself well. He affects the quality divine to politicians—of an infallible memory for names and faces, and is not above the crudest arts of a demagogue. One evening at Stanford, while he was dining with some friends in an upper room at the town hotel, one of his admirers stumbled across "Buck" Combs, who had been a bugler in Williams' regiment during the war. They had not met since. Combs got his bugle, and accompanied by an immense crowd, went down to serenade his old comrade with war melodies. Standing under his window he lifted up the old regimental call to "boot and saddle." He repeated it once and again.

"Tom," said old Williams to his host, "when that stage starting at this time of night, and what is the driver tottling so much about?"
"Why, Senator," exclaimed his friend regretfully, "that's 'Buck' Combs, your old bugler, serenading you. I told 'em you would remember him and his bugle, and they want a speech."
The old General stepped out of the window on the balcony, and lifting his voice as silence fell on the crowd, said: "That bugle call," he said, with a choking voice, "that bugle call, my friend, is like a dear echo of memory. If I had heard it in the untrodden wilds of a pathless wilderness, I would have known that old 'Buck' Combs was winding its sweet notes. Often has it called the old command to fields of carnage and the thrill of victory. (Cheers.) There is but one bugler in the world that could evoke these sweet notes, and that is 'Buck' Combs, of the old Kentucky (Cheers.) I knew it the instant I heard it." (Cheers.)—Lexington (Ky.) Cor. ## Divores Made Difficult.

Judge Shepard, in the Superior Court of Chicago on Saturday decided that in order to secure a decree of divorce under the Illinois statutes it is essential that the complainant should be a resident of the State one entire year prior to the filing of the application for a divorce, and that it must be proven that both parties to the suit were residents in the county where the application is made at the time the offence charged in the bill occurs. As the impression has always been entertained that a large number of the
